Changing the Face of Chagas Disease

Please join us on the evening of November 3, 2014 for a panel discussion and reception on radically scaling up diagnosis, treatment and research and development (R&D) for people living with Chagas disease, the leading parasitic killer of the Americas.

Coinciding with the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (ASTMH) 63rd Annual Meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, this side event will be hosted by the Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine and will bring together patients, researchers, clinicians, and policymakers to shed light on the treatment and research needs of people living with Chagas disease.

Event to be live-streamed on bit.ly/FaceOfChagas

Speakers will include:

- Dr. Pierre Buekens, Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine
- Dr. Peter Hotez, Sabin Vaccine Institute/ National School of Tropical Medicine at Baylor College of Medicine; Past President, ASTMH
- Dr. Bernard Pécoul, Drugs for Neglected Disease initiative (DNDi)
